

Consent Form for Collection and Use of Personal Information

The personal information is collected by TCK under the authority granted in the Personal Information Protection Act and in the Use and Protection of the Credit Information Act. With the consent of the job applicant, the personal information of that applicant will be collected and used as follows:

1. Purpose of the collection and use of personal information

TCK will use the provided information to manage the recruitment process and verify the authenticity of the information provided; previous work experiences and qualifications etc.

2. The Collected items of personal Information

1) Essential Information: Name, Nationality, Address, Phone Number etc.

2) Optional Information: The information provided in each employee's résumé except for personal identification information: completion of military service, previous work experiences, academic background, qualifications, receipt of awards, etc.

3. Retention period of personal information

The information of a hired employee is kept on file until destruction is ordered by the employee. However, even if an individual is not hired during the recruitment process, their information will be possibly kept on file for a certain period of time in preparation for TCK's shortage of manpower. The personal information of non-hired individuals will only be used for this purpose.

4. The right of rejection of consent

The applicant has the right to refuse to sign the consent form and thereby refuse to consent to the collection and use of personal information by TCK. However, failure to consent may result in certain disadvantages such as denial of the right to apply to TCK in the future.

I state that I have read and understand the contents of this consent form. Therefore, I hereby authorize/ refuse it.

/ /2019

Name:

(signature)

Resident registration number: